Senior Play

At 8:00 P.M. on the evenings of March 31 and April 1, the curtain went up on this year's senior play, "Best Foot Forward".

The scene was a boys' dormitory room just a few hours before the annual senior prom. While Dutch (Frank Evans) and Hunk (Martin Schmook) listened eagerly, Bud (Guy Frick) explained that Gale Joy (Char Kerr), the movie star, and her manager (Deon (Deon Burns) would arrive in a few minutes, and that she was his date for the prom.

Complications arose when Helen (Joan St. Denis), Bud's regular girlfriend, arrived and found Bud at the dance with Gale Joy. With the help of Minerva (Gerry Bennet), Ethel (Anne Christensen), the Blind Date (Charlotte Grisail), and Miss Delaware-Water-Gap (Katie Wakeman), Helen proved that "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned", when they all descended upon Gale and tore her to pieces.

After expelling Bud for disgracing the school, Dr. Reeber (Jim Simonson) became the object of a plan to get Bud back in school. This hilarious confusion, and the antics of Greenie (Max Jozwiak) and Satchel (Dave Holmes), made an enjoyable evening for all.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball was really a big time sport at Redford last winter. For the first time in twenty-six years of Metropolitan League competition, a Husky team made the play-offs. Although they bowed to Northeastern in the first round, they provided plenty of thrills for the fans.

Other high spots of the season included an upset victory over Central, a see-saw battle in U of D's new gym, and Dick Davis scoring 17 points as his team dropped a 44-43 heartbreaker to Mackenzie.

Pete Lenox and Bob Barnstead were elected co-captains of the season. Dick Davis, with a 10.3 average in ten games, was the team's top scorer. He was named to the West Side All-City squad.

Cooley	30-34	Redford
Western	35-51	Redford
Northwestern	27-27	Redford
Chadsey	32-31	Redford
Machenzie	44-43	Redford
Southwestern	33-52	Redford
U of D	35-44	Redford
Central	43-52	Redford
Southeastern	31-40	Redford
Northeastern	48-27	Redford

Reserve Basketball

The reserve team didn't show a winning record, but their season was quite a success. Several boys showed great promise and Dick Fisher, Bob Lockwood and George Smith were moved up to varsity for the playoffs.

The reserve games featured rough, exciting play; some fine shot-making; and at all times—the unusual. For example, in one game both teams held each other scoreless for the first period.

Cooley	39-37	Redford
Western	37-38	Redford
Northwestern	34-23	Redford
Chadsey	25-9	Redford
Mackenzie	23-24	Redford
Southwestern	29-24	Redford
U of D	15-17	Redford
Central	21-15	Redford
Southeastern	25-22	Redford

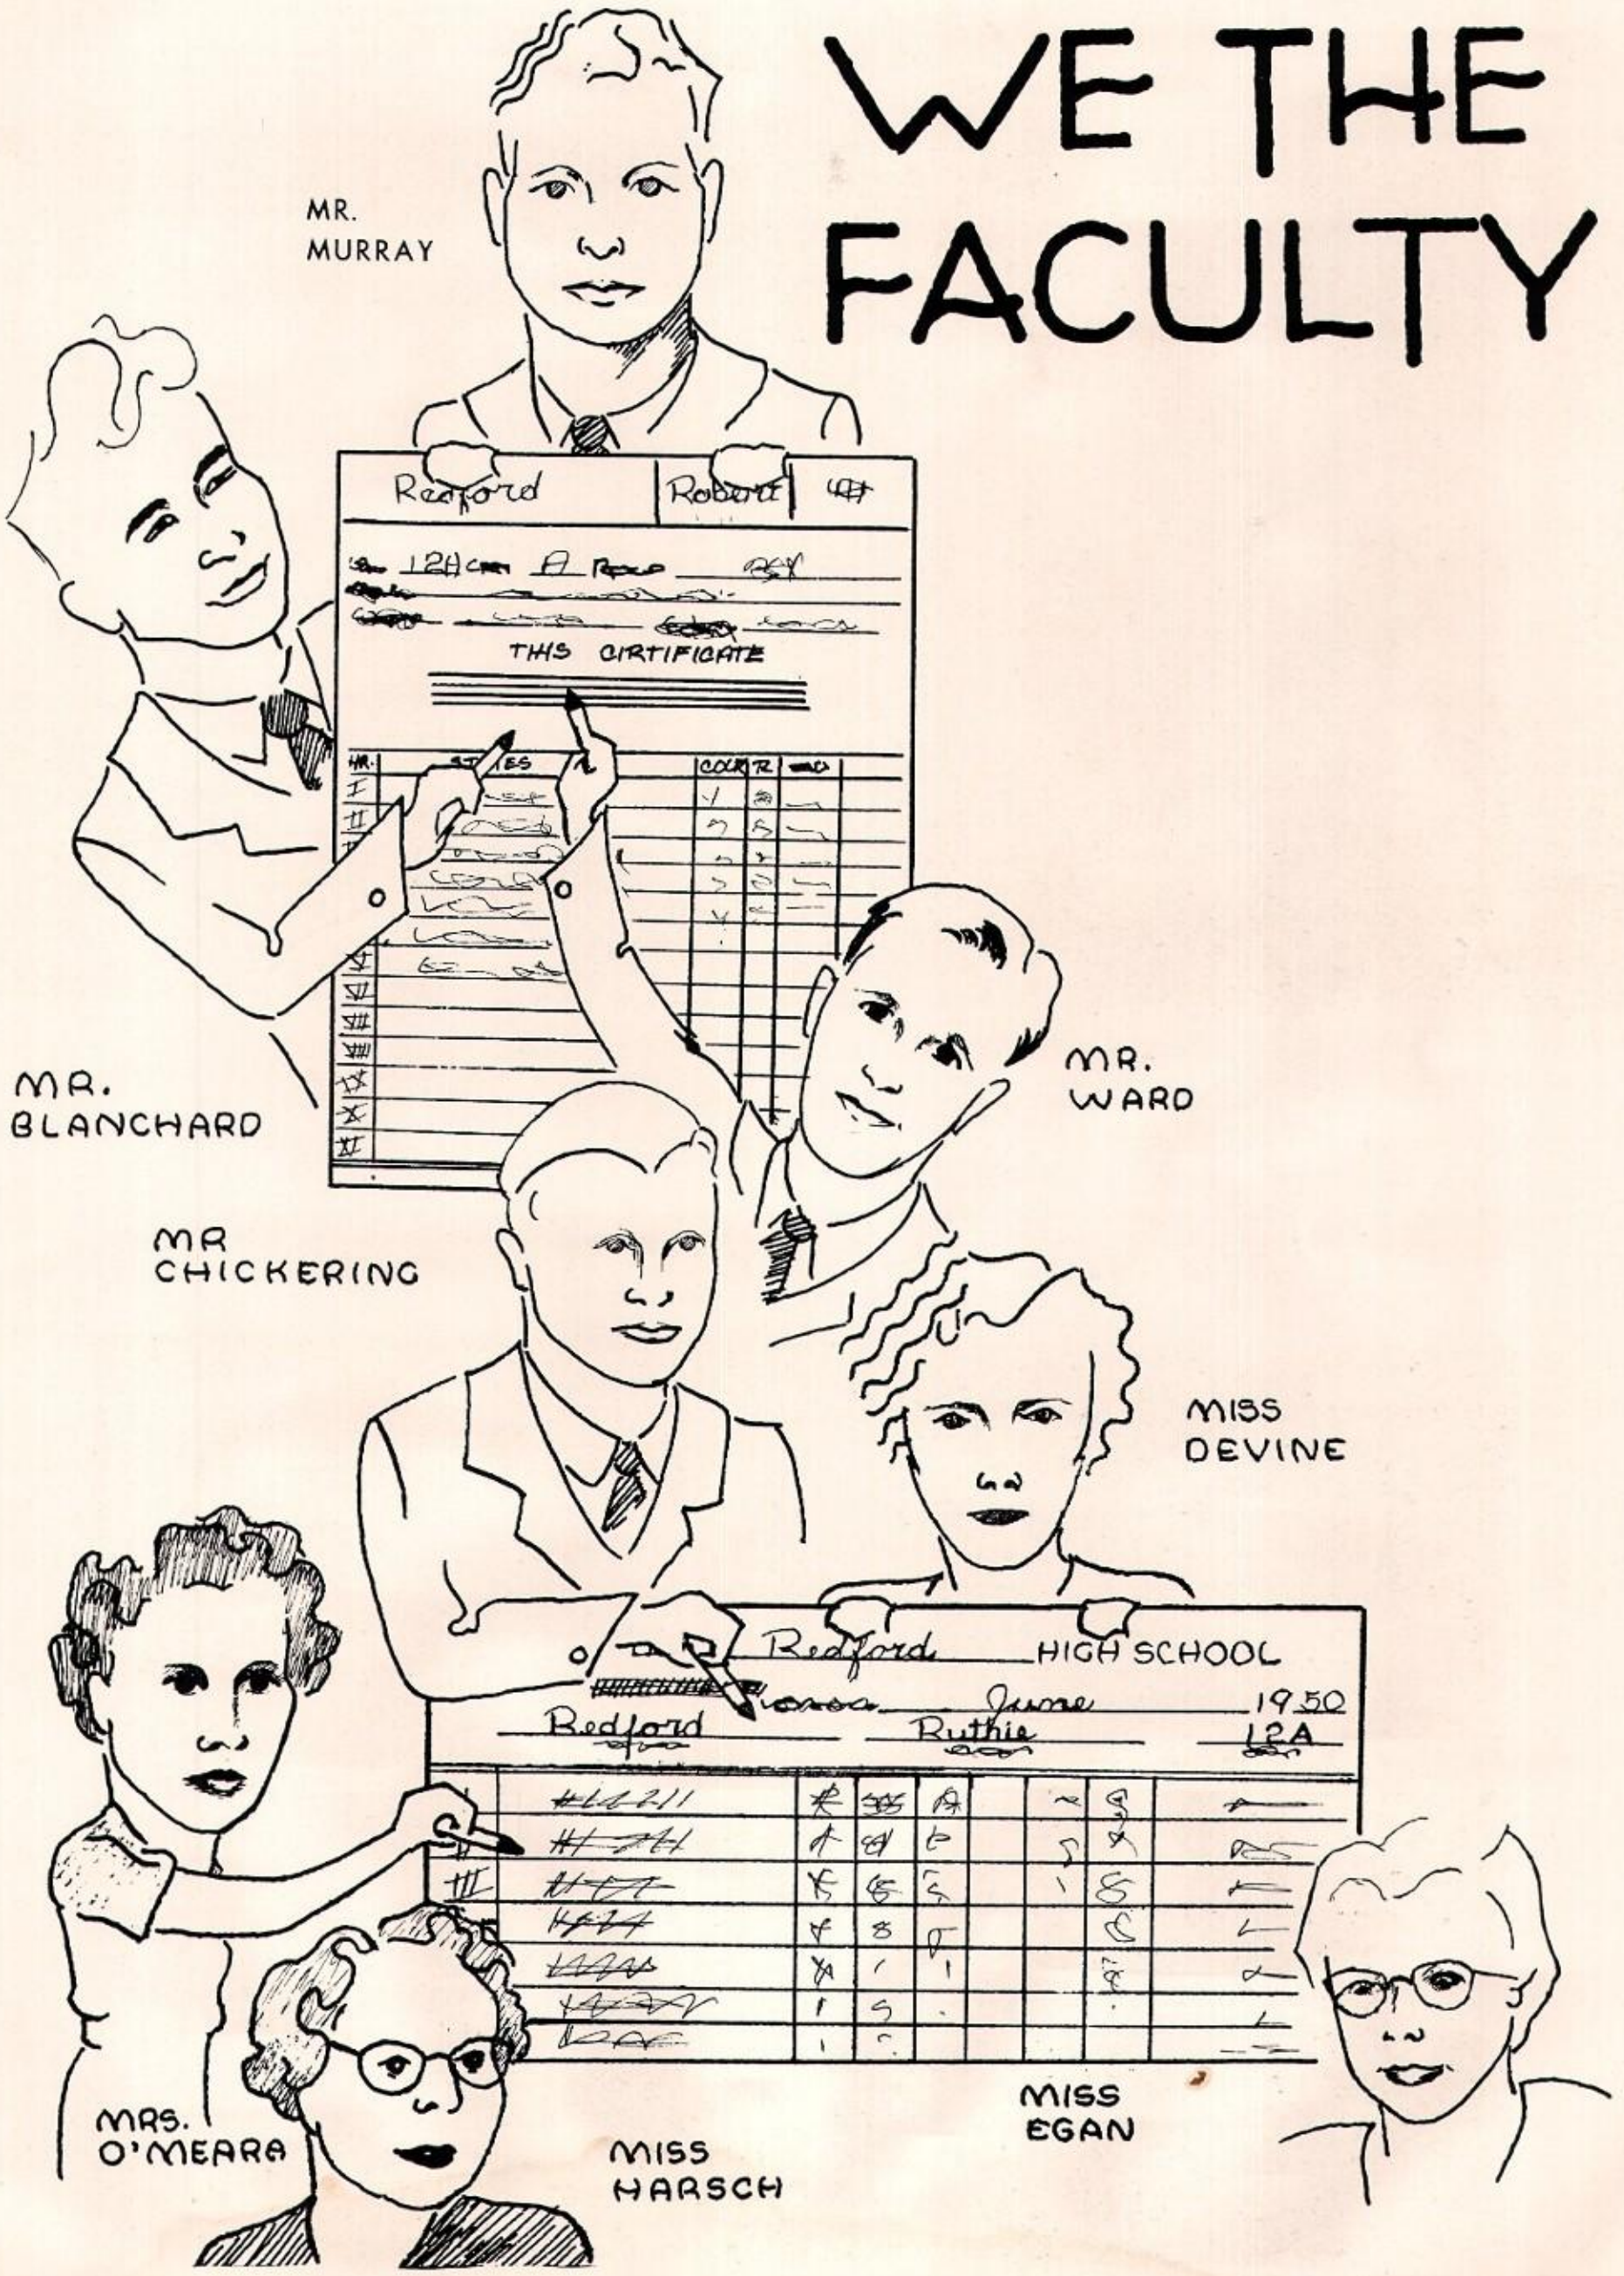
WE THE FACULTY



Homer A. Clark, Principal,
M.A., U. of M.

Fred Leonhard, Assistant Principal,
M.A., U. of M.

Dear Seniors—,

This, your Annual, arriving as it does in the closing days of your four years of high school, brings together memories of many of those things that have combined to make that education meaningful. It has been an education, not only in what you have absorbed from books, but the fun, the laughter, the joking together, the gripes, the moments of disappointment, that come from working together,—all will have combined to make you a better citizen. The songs may fade from your minds, being replaced by other tunes, just as experiences and remembrances of high school may grow rusty, but wherever you go, whatever you do, the melody of your Redford days will always claim a special corner in your hearts. You now have the keynotes that will help to carry you into the future—on to more years of education, to life in the business world, or to beginning homes of your own. Keep this copy of your Annual. As the years go by it will become of more and more importance to you to enable you to recapture some of the spirit of these—the happiest years of your life.

As you dream of the bright future ahead, set your standards high, never wavering until at last all your fondest ideals and ambitions are realized. Best wishes to all of you from all of the faculty. It's been fine to have known you. Come back, via our Alumni Association, as often as you can.

Sincerely,

Homer A. Clark

The Outpost

One of the most important parts of school life is our school paper, the OUTPOST. Truly a "big business" enterprise, the publication handles upwards of four thousand dollars worth of business every year. About thirty students make up the paper's staff, gleaned from Comp. (3J) students who substitute this course for third semester English in the 11A. The staff meets fifth hour every day as an Advanced Journalism course. Staffers get five credits for three semesters of work, and outstanding journalists are awarded membership in Quill and Scroll, an International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. The eight-page paper comes out a dozen times a year, selling subscriptions at the beginning of each semester for sixty cents. A non-profit publication, the OUTPOST has had to face rising costs and increased customer resistance in post-war years, but the circulation rate has remained close to 2500. The paper is sponsored by Mr. Arthur Greene, journalism instructor, Mr. Ernest Deason, who supervises photographic work, and Mrs. Pauline Stellberger, in charge of circulation.

Our Staff

Bustling for weeks 'til after 11th hour to meet a long series of deadlines; pasting copy to fit painfully measured spaces; mounting pictures with edges trimmed just right—so that not one Redford head is lost forever on the wrong side of the treacherous blade of the paper cutter; planning and then working for a semester to add just one more Redford annual to the Redford annals.

When the going got a little tough, Mr. Deason—who always knew how to rescue the crookedly mounted page and make the glue stick—was there to help us. We thanked our lucky stars for Mr. Greene and Mr. Baumgartner too, as well as for a conscientious Editor-in-Chief. Bob Koehler, Dick Dahn, Marilyn Geines, and Fred Waltz nearly wore themselves out creating the difficult sketches and lettering of our annual. The verses in the senior class section were composed by Gene Flowers.

But it was fun—nearly every minute of it. We'll never forget the the laughter combined with those apples and stale sandwiches we munched in 215, our narrow headquarters. We'll always remember the excitement in seeing all the pictures before anyone else could.

And so, another year book—only one of thousands—has appeared. It's better than a few; worse than others, but we like it 'cause it belongs to Redford.

Your Gas Company is 99 years young this year

We've been part of Detroit since 1851—99 years ago—but we just haven't had time to grow old. Too busy. Too busy keeping ahead of this growing city and its increasing need for gas.

It takes a lot of work and a lot of long-range planning to make sure that there will be plenty of gas for some six hundred thousand families and thousands of plants now and in the future. The responsibility, and the hard work required to meet that responsibility, keeps us from feeling or thinking "old."

We'll be here, furnishing you with up-to-the-minute gas service, when your children graduate, too!
